THREE WINNERS FOR MARTIN

LIGHTWEIGHT JOCKEY WINS LAST HALF OF AN ORDINARY CARD AT LATONIA.

First Two of His Winning Mounts Come from Stable of T. C. McDowell-Hot Weather Has Its Effect on Attendance at Kentucky Course,

Cincinnati, O., June 30.—The extremely hot weather prevailing here, coupled with an off-day offering, were factors towards a greatly reduced attendance and a falling off in speculation at Latonia this afternoon as compared with former days at this meeting. The public did not fare so well in their speculations, as Cousin Puss was the only favorite to score. Jockey E. Martin and the representatives of T. C. McDowell's stable figured prominently in the day's results. Martin piloted the last three winners. He began his successes on Star Jasmine in the mile and seventy yards handicap, which featured the program. Morristown was regarded as best in it and ruled favorite. He ran promisingly to the stretch turn, where he weakened badly and Star Jasmine went on to win with ease. Milton B. beat Morristown for second place. Strong, also from the McDowell stable, with Martin up, took the fifth race, but it was the fluklest kind of a victory, and mainly due to the fluklest kind of a victory, and mainly due to the fluklest kind of a victory, and mainly due to the fluklest wind the lead in approaching the stretch turn when Semprite moved up. Teahan began to take Rifle Brigade wide with the idea of forcing Semprite out. He succeeded, for Semprite lost enough ground to lose the race. Rifle Brigade's chances were also injured, while Strong which had been a distant trailer, managed to save enough ground to gain the lead and he retained it to the finish. After the race, the stewards promptly suspended Teahan for the rest of the meeting. Martin's final winner was Cousin Puss. The latter ran in her best form today and made a show of her opposition, winning as her rider pleased despite a poor beginning and frequent interference, Dr. Waldo Briggs again showed a good performance to finish in second place.

The opener introduced a band of fair two-year-old milles and resulted in a victory for Maud B. L., from J. C. Milam's stable. La Mode, winner of the second race, was neglected by the bettors because of the diminutive Taylor's presence the purse going to Cosis, with Candy Box and Lindar Following.

Secretary Maginn announced today the weights for the Independence Handicap to be run on Friday next. This race is at one mile and a sixteenth and will have a value of $2,500 added. Sixty-three were originally nominated and the starters will come from the following: Rudolfo, 126; Helios, 113; Irish Genteman, 107; Gowell, 107; Flora Fina, 107; Busy, 105; Any Port, 100; Labold, 100; Milton B., 100; Princess Callaway, 100; Seeth, 100; Impression, 99; Prince Hermis, 96; Consin Puss, 95.

Martin's followers neglected a good opportunity this afternoon when they failed to make a combination of his three winning mounts. Anyone having done so would have taken the entire pool of nearly $1,100. The field backers divided the money as a result of no one having picked the three and received $12,20 for $2. The two-horse combination, consisting of La Mode and Cosis, paid $206,45 to its backers.

St. 100 The field backers divided the money as a result of the time and received $12.29 for $2. The two-horse combination, consisting of La Mode and Coeis, paid $206.45 to its backers.

F. E. Brown has determined to dispose of his entire stable at auction on Thursday next in the paddock at Latonia. The horses to be offered for sale include Grover Hughes, Volthorpe. Carlton Club and Brownstone, the latter a two-year-old by Ultimus—Stepping Stone purchased at the dispersal sale of the Keene youngsters last fall. Mr. Brown will return to New York, where he has had an offer to train for a prominent sportsman.

H. H. Emmons telegaphed today to know the weight assigned to Rudolfo, which he intends to send here to start in the Independence Handicap.

J. T. Ireland, who has served on all the Kentucky courses this spring as patrol judge, departed ast night for Butte, Mont., and will serve as a refining regimin there during the thirty days of a servention of the contract of the contrac

Not Violated at Belmont Park.

Albany, N. Y., June 30.—Governor Sulzer has received a letter from Sheriff Charles T. Demott, of Nassau County, outlining the action he has taken in his efforts to discover any violation of the gambling laws during the race meetings held at the tracks in his county.

The sheriff declares that he has failed to secure any evideace that would justify him in arresting any person not a professional gambler for making an oral bet with a friend, and that he has had twenty-eight deputy sheriffs on duty at the tracks, in addition to his personal services and that he found on evidence of bookmaking or peodselling. After issuing a copy of the letter from Sheriff Demott the governor said that he may talk further on the subject latter.

Sheriff Demett's letter to the governor follows
"Hon. William Sulzer, Governor State, Albany, N.Y.
"Dear Sir—Your favor of the 24th inst., in which you advise me that you will hold me strictly responsible for any violation of the law in regard to gambling within my county, and request that I make report to you at once of what actions or precautions I have taken to enforce the law, is at

make report to you at once of what actions or precautions I have taken to enforce the law, is at hand.

"In reply I would respectfully state that I have twenty-eight deputy sheriffs on duty at the track and have instructed them to take immediately into custody any person making book on the races, and to keep a sharp lookout that no bookmaking takes place.

"I also cover the grounds very theroughly in person and can assure you that any one violating the law will be immediately taken into custody.

"In addition to my deputies, the Westchester toon detectives employed to see that the law is not violated. In view of the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of this department and the opinion of the county judge of Nessau tounty, I thank you will agree with me that I am not justified in arresting any person not a professional gambler for making an oral bet with a triend.

"I note what you say in regard to the criminal liability of the association, or the officers thereof, conducting the race meeting. I understand that the district attorney intends to start proceedings against the officers of the association.

"Upon the issuance of a warrant to me by the proper authorities for the arrest of any officers of the association. I will execute it at once. If there is anything more that you can suggest that I con

"Sheriff of Nassau County."

It is understood that District Attorney Wysong of Nassau county will hold a conference at once with Samuel Marcus, counsel for the Society for the Prevention of Crime, who, according to a letter written to Mr. Wysong by Canon William Sheafe Chase of Brooklyn, will produce witnesses to prove that the anti-bookmaking law has been violated at Belmont Park.

Canon Chase, in his communication to the District Attorney, says that he has no personal knowledge of the alleged facts which show that Belmont Park has been used for gambling and illegal bets and wagers. He has asked Mr. Wysong for the opinion recently handed down by Justice Niemann of Nassau county, who dismissed charges of gambling brought through the Burns Detective Agency, District Attorney Wysong, according to Mr. Marcus, will be asked to proceed against the owners of the track under Section 973 of the Penal Law.

BRULEUR WINS WORLD'S RICHEST RACE,

Paris, June 30.—The Grand Prix de Paris, the richest prize in the racing world, was won at Long-champs yesterday by M. E. de Saint Alary's bay colt, Bruleur, which two weeks ago finished third in the French Derby. Baron Gourgand's Opott was second and Vicomte d'Harcourt's Ecouen third. Several American owners figured in the race, but not in the money. W. K. Vanderbilt rau ran two entries, Pirpiriol and Reindeer: August Belmont. Bavard III.: Herman B. Duryea, Blarney, and Frank J. Gould, Fil d'Ecosse, but all ran unplaced.

The Grand Prix is an event for three-year-olds at one mile and seven furlongs. It was valued this year at $72,000. Bruleur was quoted at 5 to 1. He kept in the background until they straightened out for the run home, when he dashed to the front and won by a length. There were nineteen other starters.

President Poincare and members of his cabinet several diplomatic representatives, including the American ambassador, and a host of celebrities were among the spectators.

The time of the race proved to be the fastest re-orded since its foundation fifty years ago. Bru ur's time was 3:13%. Houli won last year in 3:19

WHITNEY'S HORSES WIN TWICE AT ASCOT

H. P. Whitney's stable in England has been decidedly unlucky this year, but its run of ill-fortune was broken at the recent Ascot meeting where it scored two important successes with the three year-olds Harmonicon and Meeting House, on Thursday, June 19. Harmonicon won the Fiftieth New Biennial Stakes of the net value of $6,975, at a mile, defeating Zaandam, Jaeger, Wrack, England, Belted Earl, Fire Finch and Benbain in easy style. In the Fifty-first New Biennial Stakes of the net value of $6,150, at five-eighths of a mile, Meeting House defeated Karenza, Sleipner, Waiontha, Countess Zia, Greedy Girl and Sunshine Girl. Both of the Whitney winners were second choices in the betting.

KNIGHTS DIFFER IS WINNER OF HANDICAP. Peace Officer of Nassau County Declares Law Is Davies Racer Carries Top Weight to Victory in Race at Hamilton.

Hamilton, Ont., June 30.—Favorites won three of the purses at Hamilton this afternoon. They scored in the second, third and fourth races and all three won easily. Hasson and Kingcash were the best backed of the trio, the latter especially carrying some of the heaviest commissions wagered during the meeting. There were only three starters in the Kingcash race, the Barton Steeplechase over the two and a half miles course. Kingcash was ridden by Kermath, and was rated behind the pacemaker until the last half mile, when he moved up and, assuming an easy lead, drew away at his leisure in the run through the homestretch. Bookmaker Tom Shaw accepted one wager of $3,500 on the winner, which was made by "Nick the Greek." The latter also won a big wager when Osaple beat Pat Rutledge a head in the first race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds. Osaple made all of the pace, but was tiring badly at the end.

The tabled history of the Barton Steeplechase is as follows:

The Ontario Handicap brought out a field of smart sprinters and Knights Differ, the topweight, proved best, winning easily after leading from the start. Kingly, said to be one of the smartest three-year-olds in training on the Canadian circuit, made his first appearance of the season in this race. He is owned by Mrs. L. A. Livingston and was to have been a starter in the Hamilton Derby, but went amiss during his preparation for the race. He broke slowly today, but closed a big gap and, finishing like a lion, got up in time to beat Astrologer a nose for second place. Trainer Matt Feakes is pointing Kingly for the Canadian Derby, to be run at Fort Erie next week and if nothing happens to the colt in the meantime, he will be a certain starter in that event.

The seventh race, which was a mile dash over the turf course, was marked by a heavy plunge on Speaker Clark flattered his backers for a while, but in the homestretch he tired badly and Ravenal found it easy to beat him a length and a half. The latter was left at the post and closed a tremendous gap in the iast half mile.

Will Walhace's Duquense hit himself while going to the post in the fifth race and pulled up lame.

ing to the post in the fifth race and pulled up lame.

Osaple, winner of the first race, was bid up from $700 to $1,300 and bought by Sam Louis. The latter's Pat Rutledge fluished second to Osaple. E. Brown left for Fort Erie this morning with the two-year-olds, Little Nephew and Yankee Tree. Several other horsemen have arranged to ship there on Wednesday.

Gwyn Tompkins has arranged to send Kingcash and Old Salt to Montreal at the conclusion of the Hamilton meeting. Tompkins entered his horses in four steeplechase stakes run on the circuit during the early meetings and won all four of them. He will race his steeplechasers at Saratoga and three three-year-old jumpers that he left at his Virginia farm will be shipped to Saratoga during the latter part of July.

Willie Shields and E. J. McGraw returned from New York this morning. McGraw purchased the filly by Boanerges—LaTour that Jack McGinnis secured at the Kohler sale.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

Last week Buxton reduced the margin by which J. Wilson is heading the American jockey list for 1913. Buxton piloted four winners, while Wilson who rode only twice, failed to add to his list of successes. NOTES OF THE TURF.

Racing men will be glad to learn that the Duke of Connaught, a good friend of racing, whose term as Governor-General of Canada will expire next Oc-tober, has accepted an extension for one year.

While schooling a horse over the jumps at Belmoni Park Saturday Roswell York, a jockey in the employ of Thomas F. Ryan, was thrown and so badly hurt that he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica.

of Homas F. Ryan, vas. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica. There will be no public sale of the Valley Farm's yearlings this year, the whole crop having been purchased by Col. Hon. J. S. Hendrie. They number eight, only one of which is a filly. Martimas and David Garrick are the sires represented.

George J. Long, one of the Louisville members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, has returned from a business trip to New York. He seems to think that racing conditions will be much improved in another year in New York state. Mr. Long hopes to be able to spend some of the summer at Saratoga, where his stable, in charge of trainer P. Coyne, will race. Free Lance, the star of the stable, is doing well in training.

Tattersall's the most famous horse sales mart in stable, is doing well in training.

Tattersall's the most famous horse sales mart in the south, was destroyed by fire at Lexington Sunday afternoon. Twenty-five head of saddle and harness horses owned by various noted horse fanciers perished. The sales barn, owned by Harbison, Jewell and Patterson, was destroyed for the third time inside of twenty years. R. E. Moreland. Mat S. Cohen, W. S. Baker and W. T. Griffy were large losers. The barn, valued at $18,000, was partially insured, but $50,000 worth of equipment was lost.

Dispersal Sale of Stud Animals Now in France Is Announced-Punch Bowl Wins

New York, June 30.—The announcement was made at Belmont Park this afternoon that the executors of the estate of the late Charles Kohler, whose horses in training in America were sold at the track on Saturday last, had decided to dispose of the estate's French and American studs and that the Powers-Hunters Company would have charge. The date selected for the sale is September 8, Just where the horses would be sold was not given out. The sale of these studs will be one of the most important held in several years. The stallion Uncle, whose get this season have been winning many races, will be among those placed under the hammer. With Uncle will come the celebrated horses Fitz Herbert, Zeus, Novelty and many others that are now in France. That Uncle will be sold for a big figure there is not the slightest doubt, for when John E. Madden heard today that the sale would be held, he said he knew of one man willing to give $50,000 right now for Uncle. From the American Stud, the well known stallions Charles Edward and Superman will be among those placed under the hammer. All told, it is expected that in addition to the stallions there will be fifty broodmares, thirty yearlings, the same number of weanlings and about fifteen or twenty horses in training to be disposed of.

As to the racing at Belmont Park today, it exceeded expectations after the card had been reduced by scratches. It looked as if several of the purses had each been placed at the mercy of one horse, but the unexpected happened. Five scratches in the second event left only Night Stick and Bally Cliff to start, and the first-named, which was a prohibitive choice, was returned an easy winner. But his stable companion, Prince Eugene, which was the cause of the field in the third event being cut from nine to three starters, failed to make good. Like Night Stick, he was a prohibitive choice for the race, but he met defeat, Mission, from the start, by which he lost almost two lengths, and then being shut off on the far turn. Prince Eugene the start, by which he Jockey J. McTaggart , a brother of the crack rider, Tommy McTaggart, rode his first winner when he piloted Mission to victory over Prince Eugene. McTaggart has only been riding since last fall and has not had much opportunity to show his ability. He rode a well-judged race and did not lose his nerve when Prince Eugene passed Mission at the last furlong post.

Schuyler L. Parsons, one of the stewards at Belmont Park, and a prominent member of the Jockey Club, who made several purchases at the Kohler sale on Saturday, with the intention of racing a stable, this being his first venture in that line, to-day added the two-year-old filly. Tranid, to his string. Tranid sold for the top price of the sale, being knocked down to R. W. McCulley for $5.700 and it is reported that Mr. Parsons gave $6,000 for the filly. The colors selected by Mr. Parsons are "orange, black bars on sleeves, black cap."

Trainers who disagreed with timer W. H. Barretto as to the time of the Suburban Handicap at Belmont Park on Saturday were inclined to the theory that Mr. Barretto had erred by stopping his watch as Whisk Broom II. flashed past the regular finish pole instead of the special inhishing point for this race, about thirty yards further on. But when asked about this important point Mr. Barretto declared positively that he had made no mistake, that he started his watch when the yellow flag at the barrier was dropped and stopped it when Whisk Broom II. reached the special judges' stand, where another time flag was used as a finish signal. W. C. Edwards, who was in the timers' stand, backed up the veteran official in this contention. Furthermore, Louis Garth, a well known trainer, declared that he timed the race in 2:99½. Deputy Fire Chief Lally of Brookyn, who times many races for amusement, said his watch showed that the Whitney racer ran the last mile in 1:36. This would bear out timer Barretto's figures, for he timed the first quarter in 24, the half in 47½ and the three-quarters in 1:12. Whisk Broom II. therefore running the last half mile, according to the Barretto watch, figures are official the record will stand.

ANOTHER CRACK SUNDRIDGE COLT.

Mr. E. Hulton's Longtown, a colt by Sundridge—Ladytown, bred by the late Sir Taton Sykes, was purchased at the last year's Doncaster sales for $15,500, and made a promising winning debut in the Berkshire Foal Stake at Newbury, June 12, the race being worth $4,250, Mr. J. B. Joel ran the Absurdity colt in preference to Our Lassic colt, which finished second in the Woodcote Stakes. The Absurdity colt ran Longtown's stable companion. Stornoway, to a neck in the Great Surrey Foal Stakes at Epsom, and odds were bet on him for the Newbury race, but he failed to reach the first three, and Wootton's youngster, starting at 100 to 8, scored in a canter. The performance was a convincing one, and there should be a big future before him. The colt has 36 book engagements, including next year's Derby and St. Leger.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM ABROAD.

A. Bowley returns to England from South Africa, where he has headed the list of jockeys, next month, and will ride for one of the leading northern country stables.

Offers are said to have been made for Stedfast, Beppo and Prince Palatine on behalf of the foreigners at the Ascot meeting, but these were refused by the respective owners of the horses.

fused by the respective owners of the horses.

William Saxby, father of the well-known jockey, W. Saxby, who had been in bad health for some time past, fell out of bed at his resiedence at Newmarket June 5, and broke his neek. Mr. Saxby was a retired army sergeant-major on pension.

Soulouque, the brother to 'Neil Gow, made his bow to public life in the Coventry Stakes at Ascot, and Lord Rosebery, his owner, was there to see him perform. On the Ascot card the son of Marco and Chelandry was described as a chestnut or black, a rather vague description. He is more of the blackbrown, and quite a fine colt, but had no chance against the flying Tetrarch.

Zori di Zi, a fine three-year-old colt by Collar.

Zori di Zi, a fine three-year-old colt by Collar, followed up his brilliant victory in the Rommanian Derby by winning the Prix du Jockey Club of about $6,000 at Bucharest, beating a good field by four lengths. He is considered to be one of the best horses seen on the Rommanian turf; horses seen on the Roumanian turf.

Describing a military race meeting recently held in India, the Planters' Gazette says: "The sport was of the usual order: that is to say, it was not very high class. There was enough tumbling to satisfy the most bloodthirsty, but the spills were fortunately not attended with serious results, and an eminent trainer was heard to observe when he saw his rider come unglued, 'Never mind about him. You can't hurt a soldier. But catch the horse before they pinch the saddle.' "It catch the horse before they pinch the saddle.'

they pinch the saddle."

The death has just occurred of Count de Bertenx, a well known French sportsman, at the advanced age of 78 years. He was at one time a prominent figure on the French turf and his horses competed for most of the chief prizes in that country. One of the best known of them was Upas, which ran a dead heat for the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) with Sycomore in 1886, the stakes being divided. Count Berteux also raced in England, his horses being under the charge of T. Jennings at Newmarket. Nothing of much note carried his colors, however, but races of minor value were won by Friolera, Samos II., Quakeress, Peach and a few others.

AN EMINENT ENGLISH TURFMAN DIES.

AN EMINENT ENGLISH TURFMAN DIES.

Sir Frederick Johnstone died at his residence, The Hatch, near Windsor, yesterday afternoon at the age of seventy-one. He had a serious operation about twelve years ago, and has since wintered abroad. He was one of the best known members of the Jockey Club and was a personal friend of the late King Edward VII.

Sir Frederick Johnstone years ago raced in partnership with the late Lord Alington, their horses being trained by John Porter, at Kingsclere. They had a stable of fine animals, and were very signessful, many of the "classie" races falling to their share. The first time his colours—chocolate and yellow sleeves—were carrier prominently was in the Two Thousand Guineas in 1863, when Historian finished third to Macaroni. The horse, however, turned out to be a non-stayer, though he proved successful in small races. Sir Frederick's first "classie" victory was with Brigantine, which won the Oaks in 1869, and others followed in the Derby by the aid of Common, which had won the Two Thousand Guineas in the name of Lord Alington. Common, as is well known, afterwards won the St. Leger.

Whether St. Blaise, which won the Derby in 1883.

Thousand Guineas in the name of Lord Alington. Common, as is well known, afterwards won the St. Leger.

Whether St. Blaise, which won the Derby in 1883, was the best horse Sir Frederick Johnstone ever owned is a moot point, but certain it is that he was a good animal. In any case, John Porter, his trainer, had a very high opinion of him. In his trial for the Derby he was put against Shotover and Geleimniss, the winners of the Derby and Oaks of the preceding year and beat them both. How he won the Derby, beating Highland Chief and Galliard, the latter of which had beaten him in the Guineas, is a matter of history. Another classic winner owned by the partners was Throstic, which carried off the St. Leger in 1894 in the name of Lord Alington. In connection with this race it may be recalled that they had also Matchbox engaged in the race, but sold him some time previously to Baron de Hirsch, and then beat him in the Doncaster race.

Of late years the best horse to carry Sir Frederick's colors was Plum Centre, a colt by Persimmon out of Fuse. As a three year old Plum Centre won the Prince of Wales Stakes at Ascot, and anongst other races also won the Great Northern Handleap at York. He was a fine stayer, but distinced hard ground.

Sir Frederick was a very heavy bettor, and when he fancied one of his horses would never stop booking bets so long as anything like a fair price was offered. He engineered many coups in his time, and shook up the ring on more than one occasion.

He was in his younger days very fond of big game shooting, and had made trips to North America and Upper India in search of amusement, as he was wont to term it.—London Sporting Life of June 21.

ENGLAND'S STAR TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT.

What one writer describes as "probably the best two-year-old of the last two decades," is the unbeaten gray colt, The Tetrarch, which at the recent Ascot meeting in the rich Coventry Stakes simply ran away from reputed high-class opponents and won by ten lengths, pulled up in an amazing display of extreme speed. Of this colt London London Sportsman says:

"The Tetrarch is becoming as popular with racing folk as Pretty Polly used to be. His was the easiest win in the Coventry Stakes since Persimmon, and maybe the son of Rol Herode will train on into a racehorse, as good in merit as the late King Edward's smasher. The pair have a totally different style of racing, Persimmon prefering to be led, while The Tetrarch is never so happy as when he is streaming away at the head of his field.

"Remarking on the striking markings on The Tetrarch, M.Cheri Halbroun, the well-known French purchaser of blood-stock, said, "His grandsire, Le Samaritain, was the same colour, and had practically similar spots when a three-year-old." One trainer wished he had a two-year-old a head in me," said a man with a thought of past coups in the North.

SIGNORINETTA EMULATES HER DAM.

Lord Rosebery purchased the 1908 English Derby winner, Signorinetta, at a high figure early last year, and put her to Neil Gow. Unfortunately she missed, and in referring to the fact that she was again to be mated with the horse mentioned, Mr. J. Corlet writes as follows in the "Pink 'Un:" "Her dam, the famous Signorina, for a time looked like being a terrible failure at the stud, and for years she had no produce, or slipped foal, or something of the sort. Eventually, she had a daughter that won the Derby and Oaks, and a son that ran a good third for the Derby. Lord Rosebery only gave a third for Signorinetta of what we know Mr. Graham, of Yardley, offered in vain for her dam. This offer was made outside Hammond's bank at Newmarket. "Come inside here, and you shall have the money now," said Mr. Graham, who, we believe, was acting for Mr. Willie Low, but the chevaller was not to be tempted. Nor would he have sold Signorinetta but that years are growing upon him and he was probably glad that Lord Rosebery should have her."—London Sportsman.

Winner—Br. f. by Rock Sand—Misgivings (trained by L. Feustal).

Went to post at 3:35. At post 2 minutes. Start poor and slow. Won handily: second and third driving. MISSION began fast and, taking the lead at once, showed the most speed to the stretch, then was caught and headed by Prince Eugene, but held on well in the stretch drive and, taking the lead again in the last sixteenth, won going away. PRINCE EUGENE was best, as he left the post pulling up and was shut off on the far turn, then went into the lead in the last eighth, but tired from his early efforts. STARBOITLE was always outpaced.

Scratched—9245[Flying Fairy, 107; 9293His Majesty, 103; 9084]Dr. Duenner, 108; 9295 Cock o' the Walk, 117; (9188)*Strenuous, 92; (9319)*Nightstick, 95; (9187)*Sandhill, 118.
